Visualizing One Billion Dollars. Posted on 30. May, 2008 by admin in charts and graphs, death and taxes, economics, government, military. The Death and Taxes poster contains a lot of information and is great for putting federal spending in context. However, the de-facto unit of measure is one billion dollars. I realized that people often have a hard time grasping just what one billion dollars is.

Have Plenty of Liquidity. The rich make sure they have sufficient liquidity, or cash, to cover their short-term needs. They have an emergency fund, so “they don’t have to disrupt their life for an unexpected occurrence,” Kay said.. The fact that rich people have money set aside for rainy days isn’t solely a function of their wealth.
