Biblica is the translation sponsor of the New International Version Bible. Since its initial publication in 1978, the NIV has become one of the most trusted modern Bible translations in the world.

Biblica | The International Bible Society

The New International Version (NIV) is an English translation of the Bible first published in 1978 by Biblica (formerly the International Bible Society). The NIV was published to meet the need for a modern translation done by Bible scholars using the earliest, highest quality manuscripts available. Of equal importance was that the Bible be expressed in broadly understood modern English.

Notes. 1. The Introduction of this volume says that the Greek text printed in it was "compiled by Edward Goodrick and John Kohlenberger III" in connection with their editorial work on the NIV-based Greek-English Concordance to the New Testament (Zondervan, 1997), and that it "offers a different reading from the Standard Text [i.e. the current UBS text, 4th edition] at 231 places" (p. 10).

The New International Version (NIV) - A History and Evaluation

In 1967, the New York Bible Society (now Biblica) generously undertook the financial sponsorship of creating a contemporary English translation of the Bible. The NIV Bible was produced by more than one hundred scholars working from the best available Hebrew, Aramaic, and Greek texts.
